10:00 am to 1:00 pm

The Russell G. Weigand Center for Professional Excellence

The Russell G. Weigand Center for Professional Excellence (WCPE) will help you identify, shape and define your career goals, and connect you with people and resources to help make your dreams a reality.

- Receive Career Guidance. We'll support you as you explore career possibilities, starting with crafting a strong resume, conducting an effective job search and preparing for an interview. Job shadowing offers the chance to accompany professionals through their workday to understand if a particular career might be a good fit. Mentoring establishes a longer-term relationship with a professional in a particular field.
- Get Internship Assistance. We'll help you find internships, which provide hands-on experience and boost your marketability. An internship helps you clarify your career goals, enhance your marketability and creates the chance to make valuable professional contacts. The opportunities are wide—students have worked at multinational firms such as The Walt Disney Co., financial institutions such as BMO Harris Bank, sports franchises such as the Chicago Fire Soccer Club, and nonprofits such as DuPage Habitat for Humanity.
- Access Pre-Law and Health Professions Advising. We'll support you in your exploration and preparation for careers in health care and law. You'll receive specialized advising about courses, extra-curricular experiences, and applying to professional school in these fields. Once you enroll at Elmhurst, you should come by early on to begin planning how you will become a competitive applicant.
- Take advantage of Alumni support: Graduates have lifelong access to career services, whether you're just starting out, considering a career transition or looking for new challenges in your field. Our alumni services include interview workshops, networking events, career counseling, résumé assistance, job search and interview tips.

Hello Bluejays!

Thank you for attending the Spring 2019 Career Fair! We are glad that you are here. There are a diverse and outstanding group of employers looking to hire Elmhurst College talent assembled at the fair.

To make the most of your career fair day, make sure to do the following:

Show Initiative

Shake hands and introduce yourself to recruiters when you reach the table. Maintain direct eye contact. Demonstrate your interest in the company and their job opportunities. This is where your research in the companies will allow you to shine.

Ask Questions

Have some questions ready for the company representatives that illustrate your knowledge of their organization. Employers are not merely looking for the most skilled candidate for the job; they are looking for candidates who are truly interested in their company.

Say Thank You

Take the time to send a brief follow-up thank-you note or email to the company representatives you met at the job fair.

If you need help on what to do following the fair, remember the WCPE is here for you! We are open from 8 am through 4 pm on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays and 8 am through 6 pm on Wednesdays and Thursdays. We're located in the lower level of the Buehler Library.

Our services are available by appointment or you can use our Drop-In Resume service. You can also connect to our team, career information, and resources anytime through the WCPE website, email, or any of our social media channels. We are on Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter.

Please make sure to stop by or check us out online. We are ready to help you land your internship or the launch into your career. On behalf of the WCPE team, I wish you a successful fair!

Kind regards,
Marty Gahbauer
Executive Director
Weigand Center for Professional Excellence

Elmhurst Park District

Industry: Recreation/Leisure

The Elmhurst Park District was established on June 5, 1920 to meet the leisure and recreational needs of the community. Soon thereafter, negotiations were opened for the acquisition of the Wilder estate. The estate consisted of an undeveloped cow pasture to the north and the family home, gardens and clay tennis courts on the south. Original development of the gardens had begun much earlier in 1868 by Seth and Elizabeth Wadhams, who built their home, known as White Birch, along with a greenhouse and gardens. They planted numerous trees representing a variety of species to create a true garden spot in Elmhurst. The Park District acquisition of the Wilder property occurred in 1921, making it the first public park in Elmhurst. The Park District added the conservatory to the greenhouse in 1924, and the Wilder Park Conservatory then opened to the public.

Illinois Department of Corrections

Industry: Criminal Justice/Government

To serve justice in Illinois and increase public safety by promoting positive change in offender behavior, operating successful reentry programs, and reducing victimization. When IDOC originated, Illinois only operated seven adult facilities. Since that time, stricter laws have resulted in increased sentencing and longer terms. To address this steady increase in the inmate population, the agency today operates 25 adult correctional centers as well as boot camps, work camps and adult transition centers. Safety is at the forefront of agency operations with an emphasis on frontline staff to protect and control inmates. A number of initiatives to ensure the safety of employees and inmates have yielded significant results. Security level designations, controlled line movement, inmate property boxes and increased monitoring of security threat groups have contributed to a more secure Illinois prison system.
